FRIENDS DON'T CREDIT REPORT

Nevada Men Smile at Rumor That Senator Clark is to Remove to This State

A report comes from New York by the Associated Press to the effect that Senator W. A. Clark is planning to remove from Montana to Nevada for the purpose of establishing a legal residence in this state and that he will become a candidate for United States Senator from Nevada.

While Senator Clark's legal residence is a mere matter of form, as he is but little of the time in the treasure state, it is not thought likely among the senator's friends in this state that the multi-millionaire senator will leave Montana.

Senator Clark is rated as one of the richest men in the country, and one of the rich men of the world. He owns in addition to the famous United Verde mines, coffee and sugar plantations in the southern countries, vast areas of timber land, mines in every mineral producing state in the union, a majority of the stock of the Salt Lake railroad, great blocks of railroad and industrial securities, half the big producing mines of Silver Bow county in Montana, as well as banks, city railroad lines and many other valuable holdings.

The rumor which has been started and has gained the publicity through an Associated Press report, has for its basis the fact that Senator Clark's political enemies in Montana have been active in the past and still keep up the fight.

Senator Clark resides the best part of his time in New York where his central business office, which resembles the accounting department of a great railroad, is located. He makes a couple of trips a year to his Arizona properties and is in Montana several times a year.

Should the Senator come to this state it would result in the investment of a large amount of capital from his ample means, in the mining industries of this state. Nearly all hs Butte properties are mines that were purchased as mere prospects, or only partially developed mines, and through a thor- exploitation such as his ample resources are able to make, turned out to be great producers.

The history of the great political fight in Montana whch started with the Clark-Daly fued and extended over a period of years until the death of Mr. Daly more resembles an Arabian romance than a varacious narration of singular facts.

During the years that have elapsed since 1892, commencing with the capitol fight between Helena and Acoconda a year later and extending down to the present time millions were spent by these mining kings in the battle for supremacy. The first estrangement which occurred between Mr. Clark and Mr. Daly was over a water right in the Butte camp. The fight started in earnest in 1892. Senator Clark won out for Helena as against Mr. Daly, who espoused the cause of Anaconda in the capital fight, and in 1898 when Mr. Clark became a candidate for the United States senate Marcus Daly made the fight of his life to prevent his former friend from wearing the senatorial toga. Senator Clark was elected to the senate, later unseated by the committee on elections and privileges. Two years after he went before the people of the state for a vindication and was at the subsequent session of the legislature sent to the United States senate.

Hardly thirty days had elapsed after the election of the entire Clark democratic ticket in Montana in 1900 that Marcus Daly, and old Comstocker, and one of the greatest mining kings of his time, passed away. Mr. Daly died in New York during the first week in December. His death recorded a concluding chapter of what had been one of the greatest political fights of recent times. Millions, and the exact sum will never be known, were spent during the years that the Clark-Daly fight waged in Montana.

CLARK'S CASE MUST GO TO GRAND JURY

Edward Clark must await the action of the brand jury on a charge of robbery. His preliminary examination was concluded before Judge Pollock late last nght. The prisoner was positively identified by T. A. Begotta the complaining witness. He was held to answer and his bonds were placed at $500.

In the absence of District Attorney Craig the case was handled by E. L. Williams. The prisoner was not represented by counsel.

Since the examination was held Constable Wilson has learned of more witnesses who saw him commit the crime.

Clark, it will be remembered, was cleverly captured by Deputy Constable Tim Regan and Jack Shields while trying to escape from the railroad depot one night last week.

RHEUMATISM

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment gives prompt relief. E. W. Sullivan, Prop., Sullivan Housee, El Reno, O. Well Known Merchant Returns from Business Trip to the Fashion Marts

Delegates from the various labor unions of Reno assembled last evening at Riter hall to devise ways and means toward helping out the labor day celebration to be held at Carson September 4. The utmost harmony prevailed, and each representative gave assurance of hearty support by his organization.

The meeting was called pursuant to a communication from Carson requesting that the union men of Reno appoint one member of the labor day executive committee, a speaker from each organization and also to put in trim a tug of war team.

Brewers, bricklayers, carpenters, hod carriers, painters and printers were there strong.

Chairman G. H. Booth called the meeting to order. After the usual preliminaries the election of the Reno member of the executve committe was in order and A. L. Linn, of Reno Typographical Union, No. 611, was selected.

Eugene Cowles of the Bricklayers' union was unanimously chosen to captan the tug of war team. It was suggested that each unon notify Mr. Cowles of the available timber for the team as early as possible, so that they may begin practice in order to hold down the husky lads from Virginia and Carson.

L. B. Self of the Carpenters' union and J. F. Haley of the Typographical union were the only ones selected to represent their unions on the speakers' stand, as the other organizations have not as yet made appointments for that purpose. By the end of the week, however, all will have representation.

The rock drilling contest had to be passed up, as no member of the local miner's union appeared. Secretary A. E. McKinley was instructed to communicate with H. P. Ramsey regarding the matter.

Judging from the tenor of the remarks made by the various delegates Reno will do herself proud in the matter of labor representation when the band begins to play in the capital city on the morning of September 4.

ITALIANS TO GIVE PICNIC

Annual Outing of Well Known Society to Be Held August 27 At Riverside Pleasure Park

The annual picnic of the Italian Benevolent Society of Reno will be held on Sunday, August 27. This was decided upon at a meeting of the society held this week. Felix Vogliotti was appointed chairman of the committee of arrangements and has already started to work preparing for the event.

The picnic is to be given at the Riverside Pleasure park, formerly known as Poor's grove. The grounds are in excellent shape this year. Mr Vogliotti is already negotiating for a brass band to furnish music for the occasion. Busses will be run at frequent intervals to and from the grounds. An admission of 50 cents will oe charged for gentlemen while ladies and children will be admitted free.

In addition to dancing there will be games of all kinds and it is understood competition will be invited by offering a number of prizes. The picnics given by the Benevolent Society in the past have always been a success in every way. The aim of the organization for the coming outing is to make it the best yet. Invitations will be sent to every member and all will be asked to attend and bring their friends with them.

POWER LINE MAY BE RUN TO OLINGHOUSE

There is talk of extending the power service of the Truckee River General Electric Company to Olinghouse and White Horse districts. The matter has not been definitely decided upon as yet. Superintendent Broile has just returned from the new districts with a view of learning the conditions. He is already much impressed with the outlook and it is probable the company will install the service. In the event that this is done it means the development of many more mining properties in the new camps in the lower end of the county.

Renderes the bile more fluid and thus helps the blood to flow; it affords prompt relief from biliousness, indigestion sick and nervous headaches, and over-indulgence in food and drink.

G. L. Caldwell, Agt. M. K. and T. R. R., Checotah, Ind., Ter., writes, April 18, 1903: "I was sick for over two years with enlargement of the liver and spleen. The doctors did me no good, and I had given up all hope of being cured, when my druggist advised we to use Herbine. It has made me sound and well." Sold by T. R. Cheatham, 50c.

LABOR DAY AT CAPITAL CITY

Union Men of Reno Hold Interesting Session and Prepare for Celebration

H. Fraley, the suit and cloak man, returned last evening from a five-week's business trip to the fashion marts of the east. He was at New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltmore and Philadelphia. He visited the manufacturing establishments in all the cities named and as a result has selected what he believes will be the finest stock of ladies', misses' and children's suits, cloaks, skirts and furnihing goods that has ever been brought to the State of Nevada.

"I am pleased with the result of my visit," said Mr. Fraley, "I can canddly say that in my long experience in this business I have never seen more beautiful styles than those that will be shown in my new stock. One cannot imagine the real beauty of style until the fashion marts of the east are personally visited. This year, above all others, the people who dictate what the American women shall wear have outdone themselves. Despite this condition the goods this year have not advanced in price. For Reno I can say that the ladies of this city buy stylish clothing at prices far lower than in the eastern cities. The reason for this is that the merchants of the smaller cities, like Reno are not under the heavy expense of the big stores of the east. I have secured an exceptionally large stock, one larger than many of the big establishments can afford to carry. The reason for this is that I have a demand for the best goods made and know it. Accordingly I have laid in a stock to meet this demand. My stock will begin to arrive within the next two weeks, and will be placed on display in my present store, though I hope to be able to open in our new establishment in the Peters building not later than the middle of September."

"KIND ANGEL" FAILED THEM

Winn's Burlesquers Bring Their Engagement to a Close At McKissick's

The theatrical troupe that has been holding the boards at McKissick's opera house for the past three weeks, has disbanded. When the curtain was rung down Sunday night it was for the last time and yesterday the dozen or more members of the vaudeville burlesque company received their wages from the management and with the exception of four members of the company, all left last evening for San Francisco.

A well known local man has been financing the theatrical venture and in the parlance of the foothight and foyer he was the "Angel" for the aggregation. The company first made its appearance under the name of Winn's burlesquers. As the card did not prove a money-getting attraction, the show was changed into vaudeville. Under this arrangement it ran a week, but was not a financial success, although in many respects a very fair show was given.

It was announced yesterday morning that the company would disband. Every member of the company was paid in full and all the obligations of the company were paid by the management.

YOUNG MAN'S MIND AFFECTED BY HEAT

The excessive heat of the past several weeks affected the mind of Joseph Stanley yesterday afternoon. The unfortunate young man attempted to disrobe on Second street when he was taken in charge by officers. His condition was aggravated by a severe toothache. He has been employed at Lane's woodyard, is not a drinking man and heretofore has always acted rationally. It is thought that with proper care he will be all right within a few days.

OLD EUREKANS ARE EXCITED

Many Rich Finds in Base Range Send New Life Through Veins of the Pioneers

Felix Raphel arrived in Reno last evening from his old home at Eureka. He is on his way to Tonopah, where he has been located for some time. Mr. Raphael returns from the Base range enthusiastic over the outlook of the old time mining district. Two exceptionally rich finds are reported there.

"The Old Eureka Tunnel," said Mr. Raphel, "has just uncovered an immensely rich lege of ore. Assays just received from Salt Lake show that it goes ten and one-fourth ounces in gold and 320 ounces in silver. This property is owned principally by Reinhold Sadler, Nevada's former governor. The ledge is about two feet in width and the news of the find has created interest around Eureka. Johnnie McNaughton of Ruby Hill has also made a rich strike. A big shipment was made last week and others are to follow. The rock carries high values in gold. Charles Broy, the postmaster, has just had an eastern expert examining properties he owns around Eureka. Otto Mau last week made a rich strike on the road between Eureka and Diamond. He broke open a boulder and it carries high values in silver. As a result of this find every foot of ground in that section has been staked. James Hillis is now working a big iron deposit that promises to prove a big thing because of the fact that the railroad company has prospectors in the country at the present time looking for iron mines.

"District Attorney Rodgers has taken up the question of defining the moral limits in the old town and last week compelled some of the demimonde who have arrived there lately to move the required distance away from the school house. Old lots, abandoned many years ago, are now being relocated and before long the old camp will take on the appearance of a rejuvenated mining camp.

"Oliver Major, the shoe dealer, is having plans and specifications prepared with a view of having his store painted. Ed Kraus, the grocer, is one of the most hopeful in town. He is improving his place and preparing for the expected rush. The old fire house, the scene of many a jolly gathering among the old-time Eurekans, is being repainted, in fact for the first time in many years the people are up and doing, the old-timers are hopeful and the new life coming into the town means much for its future.

GAMBLER BITES A FRIEND IN FIGHT

Two men fought for ten minutes last night in front of the Barrel House and in the rear of the Palace hotel over a $10 debt. One of the principals during the melee chewed the shoulder of his opponent so badly that he bled profusely and will probably have to have several stitches taken in his anatomy before he is as good as new.

One of the men won $110 playing bank in the Barrel House and after he had cashed in his checks he was accosted by one of his companions who had demanded that he pay him $10 which he alleged to be due him. One word led to another and blows were exchanged. The fight started in front of the Barrel House and broke out a second time in the alley. The man who made the winning came out second best as his shoulder was badly lacerated by the teeth of his adversary.

EAST LOOKING TO THE WEST

Harry J. Gosse Says Nevada is Center of Interest in New England States

Harry J. Gosse, who was a delegate to the grand lodge of Elks at Buffalo returned yesterday morning from an extended trip through the east, and upon his return visited the Portland exposition.

"Business conditions," said Mr. Gosse, "are of a very favorable character. On every hand there were evidences of general prosperity and every one I met while away appeared well satisfied and making money. The mills and factories of the east are behind with their orders for fall goods, and the outlook for autumn business throughout the east appears very good.

"We carried the day for Denver as the next meeting place. Inasmuch as Dallas, Texas, was in the race we had to put up a hard fight for Denver. The delegates from the western states all favored Denver and we finally carried the day for the Colorado capital by a close vote.

"In the neighborhood of 2500 delegates were present from all sections of the country, and the gathering was brim full of unbounded enthusiasm. The membership committee reported 200 new lodges organized and instituted in different parts of the United States durng the past twelve months. The membership has increased materially during that period and the total membership of the order in the United States exceeds 200,000 members. Next year it is expected that the order will establish a new record for growth and progress.

"In New York I met a number of former Nevada people. Gerald Bacon, who is manager of the Brooklyn Lyceum theater, treated me royally and sent his best wishes to all of his Nevada friends.

"The east generally is looking to the west as a prospective field of investment. Unusual interest in Nevada is apparent on every hand as the singularly rich gold discoveries made during the last couple of years in this state have brought the state into unusual prominence with the result that every one I met was very much interested to know all about the state and its resources. I believe there is more interest being taken in the west among the people of the east than ever before.

"The Portland exposition is a great success California leads all other states in the matter of fine exhibits. The display is well selected and attractively arranged."

A NEW DIRECTORY FOR WASHOE COUNTY

Work on the Reno and Sparks directory for 1906 started yesterday. J. F. Haley and Lyle Durley, publishers of the directory of 1904, announce that the coming book will be better if possible than the former issue. Arrangements may probably be made to take in the entire county in the next issue. It has been nearly five years since a directory of the county was published. The population has more than doubled in that time and the work would be one of value to the busy business man as well as the stranger.

Local labor will be exclusively employed in gathering data for the new book. The work will also be done in Washoe county. It is planned to issue the new book early in January, 1906.

Renderes the bile more fluid and thus helps the blood to flow; it affords prompt relief from biliousness, indigestion sick and nervous headaches, and over-indulgence in food and drink. G. L. Caldwell, Agt. M. K. and T. R. R., Checotah, Ind., Ter., writes, April 18, 1903: "I was sick for over two years with enlargement of the liver and spleen. The doctors did me no good, and I had given up all hope of being cured, when my druggist advised we to use Herbine. It has made me sound and well." Sold by T. R. Cheatham, 50c.

TO BE MARRIED COMING WEEK

A. M. Smith and Miss Ivan Sessions Will Wed At Congregational Church

The engagement of Miss Ivan Sessions and A. M. Smith is formally announced. The wedding is to take place at the Congregational church next Wednesday morning the couple will Mears will officiate The ceremony will be simple in nature and only a few of the most intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties have been invited. A wedding breakfast will follow and on the west bound Overland limited leaving Reno at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. The couple will start on their journey to Esparta, Costa Rica, where they plan to make their future home.

Miss Sessions is one of Reno's best known young ladies. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Sessions and the greater portion of her life has been spent in Reno. She is a former student of the University of Nevada, well known throughout the county and popular with all who know her.

Mr. Smith is a son of Mrs. Morris Smith. He is a member of the mining class of '00 of the University of Nevada. His ability as a mining engineer was immediately recognized after leaving college and for some time was in charge of Boyle & Gignoux's cyanide plant of Dayton. He was also elected justice of the peace of that town and resigned only when offered flattering inducements to go to Central America. He has been located there for the past two years or more and is now in charge of the property of the Corinthian Mines Company of Esparta, Costa Rica. He secured a vacation several weeks ago to return to the states to prepare for the important ceremony next Wednesday morning. Shortly after his arrival he was taken down with tropical fever and until a few days ago was confined to his bed. He is now out, however, and gaining in strength every day.

Mr. Smith will perhaps be better known as "Long Tom." For a number of years, during his college life he was city editor of the Nevada State Journal, as well as editor in chief of the first issue of Artemisia and the Student Record. In journalism he made as good a record as he has in mining. Incidentally "Tom" has succeeded in making friends, friends who are staunch in their loyalty to him. In his journey from the bottom to the top of the ladder he has proven himself enterprising, upright, energetic and in every way capable of proving himself an honor to the charming young woman he will lead to the altar next Wednesday morning.

The couple plan to spend about two weeks in California, after which they will sail on a Pacific mail liner for the new home in Central America

"CARSON IS A GREAT CITY"

So Says Mayor Mackey Who is On a Brief Visit to His Many Reno Friends

Will U. Mackey, mayor of Carson City, spent last evening in Reno. Mayor Mackey states that Carson is now enjoying an era of prosperity greater than for many years past while the outlook for still better times is most encouraging.

"We are going to have paved streets, electric cars and more electric lights before long, if present conditions continue," said Mayor Mackey. "The people have awakened to the fact that Carson is the best city in Nevada and with railroad communication to the upper country it will be the distributing point of one of the richest sections in Nevada.

"The artesian well work is progressing in a satisfactory manner, but really I do not believe a flow will be struck. This should not be taken as a criticism o fthe contractors or the capitol commissioners. By the provisions of the appropriation made by the legislature the work of digging for artesian water must be carried on either in the capitol grounds or at the Orphan's Home. In the opinion of many both places are off the artesian belt and water will not be struck. But, you know, no one is gifted with exact knowledge of the conditions down deep in the earth and there is a chance that water will be struck. This, at least, is the hope of every one in what you have condescended to call the city af trees and staid, truthful people."
